

We are now Refinitiv, formerly the Financial and Risk business of Thomson Reuters. We've set a bold course for the future – both ours and yours – and are introducing our new brand to the world.

As our brand migration will be gradual, you will see traces of our past through documentation, videos, and digital platforms.

Thank you for joining us on our brand journey.

Sources

Thomson Reuters comprehensive Deals content is sourced through direct deal submissions from global banking and legal contributors coupled with extensive research performed by a global team of dedicated research analysts across a broad range of sources, including regulatory filings, corporate statements, media, and pricing wires to attain the most robust information pertinent to a transaction.

Value Add

Thomson Reuters leads the market in producing league tables that reflect the marketplace, collaborating closely with global deal practitioners to set league table criteria. Quarterly investment banking market reviews are distributed to the dealmaking community and featured in leading global financial publications, including The Financial Times, The New York Times DealBook, The Wall Street Journal, The Globe and Mail, and South China Morning Post. Thomson Reuters Deals content is used to monitor deal flow, identify trends, analyze market share, monitor banking relationships and competitors, structure new deals, and search for comparable transactions.

Quality

More than 2,500 pre-product quality control validations occur at the point of data entry, with over 1,000 intra-day and nightly quality control checks that validate the data before reaching clients.

Timeliness

M&A, Bonds, Equity, Syndicated Loans, and Public Financing content is updated hourly.
